SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and/or treatment for substance abuse, as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Office. At the direction of the probation office, the defendant shall receive a substance abuse evaluation and participate in inpatient and/or outpatient treatment, as recommended. Participation may also include compliance with a medication regimen. The defendant will contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment) based on ability to pay or availability of third party payment. The defendant shall not use alcohol and/or other intoxicants during the course of supervision.

The defendant shall submit to a mental health evaluation. If treatment is recommended, the defendant shall participate in an approved treatment program and abide by all supplemental conditions of treatment. Participation may include inpatient/outpatient treatment and/or compliance with a medication regimen. The defendant will contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment) based on ability to pay or availability of third party payment.

The defendant shall participate in a sex offender treatment program, to include psychological testing and a polygraph examination, as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer. The defendant shall also abide by all supplemental conditions of sex offender treatment, to include abstaining from alcohol. Participation may include inpatient/outpatient treatment, if deemed necessary by the treatment provider. The defendant will contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment) based on ability to pay or availability of third party payment. Sex offender assessments and treatment shall be conducted by therapists and polygraph examiners approved by the U.S. Probation Office, who shall release all reports to the U.S. Probation Office. The results of a polygraph examination will not be used for the purpose of revocation of supervised release. If disclosure is required by mandatory reporting laws, polygraph results will be reported to appropriate treatment personnel, law enforcement, and related agencies with the approval of the Court. If polygraph results reveal possible new criminal behavior, this will be reported to the appropriate law enforcement and related agencies after obtaining approval from the Court.

The defendant shall not have any contact (personal, electronic, mail, or otherwise) with any child under the age of 18, including in employment, without the prior approval of the U.S. Probation Officer. If contact is approved, the defendant must comply with any conditions or limitations on this contact, as set forth by the U.S. Probation Officer. Incidental contact in the course of daily commercial transactions is permissible.

The defendant shall not view or possess any form of sexually stimulating pornography, correspond with anyone in the business of providing such material, or enter adult entertainment venues where sexually stimulating pornography is the primary product(s) for purchase or viewing.

The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or any other device with an internal, external, or wireless modem, without the prior approval of the U.S. Probation Officer. If computer use is approved, the defendant shall submit to unannounced examinations of all computer equipment, the installation of monitoring hardware and software, and the possible removal of such equipment for a more thorough inspection. If computer use for employment purposes is approved by the U.S. Probation Officer, the defendant shall permit third party disclosure to any employer or potential employer concerning any computer-related restrictions that are imposed upon the defendant.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, residence, adjacent structures, office, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), and other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents or occupants that the premises and/or vehicle may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his release and/or that the area(s) or item(s) to be searched contain evidence of this violation or contain contraband. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. This condition may be invoked with or without the assistance of law enforcement, including the U.S. Marshals Service.

The defendant shall not patronize business establishments where more than fifty percent of the revenue is derived from the sale of alcoholic beverages.

The defendant shall comply with all sex offender laws for the state in which he resides and shall register with the local sheriff's office within the applicable time frame.
